

100 Days of Republican Oversight of the U.S. Homeland Mission

Last Congress, Democrats largely ignored many significant homeland security issues that impact Americans across the country. Over the first 100 days of a Republican Majority, the House Committee on Homeland Security wasted no time moving the needle as we carried out well overdue oversight actions to hold the Biden administration accountable for the two years of damage to our homeland security.

The Homeland Security Committee has conducted over 340 oversight activities—including site visits, meetings, briefings, letters, and hearings to hold the Biden administration accountable for their dangerous policies.

- ✕ 230 briefings & meetings with DHS & key homeland security stakeholders
- ✕ 23 oversight and document request letters
- ✕ 15+ site visits
- ✕ 7 hearings

The Committee launched 19 investigations and oversight initiatives to examine the Biden administration's fraud, waste and abuse around issues including:

- ✕ Border wall construction contracts
- ✕ DHS's approach to arbitrating mis-, dis-, and malinformation (MDM)
- ✕ Grants accountability and management
- ✕ China's threat to U.S homeland security
- ✕ Alternatives to Detention and migrant parole programs
- ✕ CBP One app

During our first 100 days, our members effectively carried the Committee's message through over 140 television interviews focused on our top oversight efforts and successfully filling the void left by the Democrats' silence on key homeland security issues.
